Submissions for Crannóg 50 open November 1st until November 30th

Publication date is February 22nd 2019

Crannóg is published three times a year in spring, summer and autumn.

Submission Times: Month of November for spring issue. Month of March for summer issue.

Month of July for autumn issue.

We will not read submissions sent outside these times.

POETRY: Send no more than three poems. Each poem should be under 50 lines.

PROSE: Send one story. Stories should be under 2,000 words.

We do not accept postal submissions.

When emailing your submission we require three things:

- 1. The text of your submission included both in body of email and as a Word attachment (this is to ensure correct layout. We may, however, change your layout to suit our publication).*
- 2. A brief bio in the third person. Include this both in body and in attachment.*
- 3. A postal address for contributor's copy in the event of publication.*
